

Bloomsbury Square

Bloomsbury Square Located in the South of the borough, the square is divided by a path into four sections and has a wonderfully kept garden, grass areas and a small children's playground. Bloomsbury Square is known for having high foot traffic from commuters and London visitors.

The square has hosted a variety of activities including community festivals, art showcases, launch events and commercial activities.

Toilets:
No public toilets on this site.

Parking:
Pay and display parking around the square. Parking suspensions can be purchased on Euston Square.

Access:
Vehicles maybe be allowed after gaining permission from Camden.

Transport:
Holborn tube station
0.2 Miles (⌚ 5 minutes)

Total daily footfall:

 3,806

Age range:

 Working age: 89.8%
Over 65: 8.3%
Children: 1.9%

Who they are:

 Local residents: 13%
Work in the area: 29%
Visitors / Tourists: 58%