

Russell Square

Russell Square is situated behind the British Museum in the South of the Borough. This large square has multiple paths, expansive lawns, trees, a water fountain and an established Italian café open daily. Russell Square benefits from high footfall and is a popular lunchtime spot.

Previous events we have held in this space include company fun runs, technology showcases and product sampling, a comedy festival and charity events.

Toilets:
No public toilets on this site.

Parking:
Pay and display parking around the square. Parking suspensions can be purchased on Euston Square.

Access:
Vehicles maybe be allowed after gaining permission from Camden.

Transport:
Russel Square tube station
0.1 Miles (⌚ 3 minutes)

Total daily footfall:

11,694

Age range:

Working age: 83%
Over 65: 16%
Children: 0.9%

Who they are:

Local residents: 17%
Work in the area: 22%
Visitors / Tourists: 61%